Solomon-Miles Donnelly - Piano

Schubert Sonata in A Major D 664
Chopin Etude Op 10 No 6 in Eb minor
Chopin Etude Op 10 No 8 in F major
Rachmaninoff Sonata No 2 Op 36

Solomon-Miles Donnelly is a 19 year old pianist from Rainhill.

He began lessons with Simon Bottomley in 2013 and a year later joined Chetham's School of Music where he enjoyed 5 years of study. Solomon-Miles has performed in concerts and competitions across London, Jersey, Poland and Belgium, in addition to numerous concerts around the North West including St George's Hall, Liverpool. Solomon has played in concert with Stephen Hough, as well as participating in several of his masterclasses and those of concert pianists Simon Callaghan, Freddy Kempf and Boris Berman.

Solomon has been the overall winner of the Rainhill, Warrington and Hazel Grove music festivals and in 2018, achieved his FTCL (Fellow of Trinity College, London) diploma in piano performance. In 2018 he played Shostakovich's Piano Concerto No.2 at the Pennine Spring Music Festival and in February 2019 performed Rachmaninoff's Piano Concerto No.2 with Wilmslow Symphony Orchestra. Most recently, in 2020 he was awarded 3rd prize in the V Krystian Tkaczewski International Piano Competition. He is currently continuing to study piano under Simon Bottomley and is now a 2nd year medical student at the University of Liverpool.
